Fifty-fourth session
Fifth Committee
Agenda item 121
Proposed programme budget for the biennium 2000-2001

Draft resolution submitted by the Chairman following informal consultations

Questions relating to the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2000-2001

I

The General Assembly,

Reaffirming its resolutions 41/213 of 19 December 1986 and 42/211 of 21 December 1987,

Recalling its resolution 53/206 of 18 December 1998, in which the Assembly invited the Secretary-General to prepare the budget outline for the biennium 2000-2001 on the basis of 2,545 million United States dollars,

Recalling also its resolution 52/220 of 22 December 1997,

Recalling further its resolutions 51/219 of 18 December 1996 and 53/207 of 18 December 1998,

Recalling the relevant paragraphs of resolutions 52/12 A and 52/12 B of 12 November and 19 December 1997, respectively, as well as resolutions 52/235 of 26 June 1998, 53/220 A of 7 April 1999, 53/220 B of 8 June 1999 and 54/15 of 29 October 1999, relating to the Development Account,

Recalling also paragraph 2 (a) of its resolution 1798 (XVII) of 11 December 1962,

Reaffirming the respective mandates of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions and the Committee for Programme and Coordination in the consideration of the proposed programme budget,

Reaffirming also the requirement of all Member States to fulfil their financial obligations as set out in the Charter of the United Nations on time, in full and without conditions,

99-39776 (E) 221299

Recognizing the detrimental effect of the withholding of assessed contributions on the administrative and financial functioning of the United Nations,

Recognizing also that late payments of assessed contributions adversely affect the financial situation of the Organization,

Stressing that the established procedures for the formulation, implementation and approval of the programme budget must be strictly followed,

Having considered the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2000-2001[1] and the reports of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions[2] and the Committee for Programme and Coordination[3] thereon,

1. Reaffirms that the Fifth Committee is the appropriate Main Committee of the General Assembly entrusted with responsibilities for administrative and budgetary matters;

2. Reaffirms also rule 153 of its rules of procedure;

3. Reaffirms further the Regulations and Rules Governing Programme Planning, the Programme Aspects of the Budget, the Monitoring of Implementation and the Methods of Evaluation, and the Financial Regulations and Rules of the United Nations;

4. Decides that no changes to the budget methodology, to established budgetary procedures and practices or to the financial regulations may be implemented without prior review and approval by the General Assembly, in accordance with established budgetary procedures;

5. Reaffirms the role of the General Assembly in carrying out a thorough analysis and approval of posts and financial resources, as well as of human resources policies, with a view to ensuring full implementation of all mandated programmes and activities and the implementation of policies in this regard;

6. Welcomes the timely submission of the proposed programme budget and the continued efforts made by the Secretary-General to improve the format of the proposed programme budget;

7. Notes with concern the late submissions on section 11B, International Trade Centre (UNCTAD/WTO), and section 33, Development Account;

8. Commends the efforts and initiatives of the Secretary-General aimed at reforming the United Nations;

9. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that, in the implementation of approved reform proposals, there should not be an adverse impact on the fulfilment of legislative mandates;

10. Also requests the Secretary-General to ensure that the proposals contained in the individual sections of future proposed programme budgets include more precise information on the outputs, activities, objectives and expected accomplishments of the various departments, on the basis of which the General Assembly could later evaluate budget performance;

11. Recognizes that the General Assembly has not yet approved the proposal of the Secretary-General on results-based budgeting;

[2] Ibid., Supplement No. 7 (A/54/7).

[3] Ibid., Supplement No. 16 (A/54/16).

12. Takes note of the fact that the concepts of "expected accomplishments", "outputs", "objectives" and "activities" are not exclusively related to and should not be confused with the concept of "results-based budgeting";

13. Decides that any development related to results-based budgeting should be undertaken only with the prior approval of the General Assembly;

14. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to present the budget outline and the proposed programme budget to the General Assembly strictly in accordance with existing budgetary procedure;

15. Emphasizes that resources proposed by the Secretary-General should be commensurate with all mandated programmes and activities in order to ensure their full and effective implementation;

16. Renews its appeal to Member States to demonstrate their commitment to the United Nations by, inter alia, meeting their financial obligations on time, in full and without conditions, in accordance with the Charter and the Financial Regulations and Rules of the United Nations;

17. Reiterates that core functions of the United Nations, as a principle, should be financed through the regular budget and apportioned among Member States, and notes with concern the excessive reliance on extrabudgetary resources in some sections;

18. Notes with concern the current and projected decreasing trend of extrabudgetary resources, particularly for the United Nations funds and programmes;

19. Expresses concern that the decrease in extrabudgetary resources in some sections of the programme budget shall have adverse impact on the effective implementation of programmes and activities, especially for those programmes that are still heavily funded primarily through such resources;

20. Recalls its decision set out in part II, paragraph 2 (b), of its resolution 41/213, and emphasizes that, in future, proposed programme budgets shall be considered by the General Assembly in fascicle form, together with recommendations on them by the Committee for Programme and Coordination and the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions, and that the programme budgets shall be issued in their final form after approval by the General Assembly, with the changes to the resource level annexed to the approved programme budget;

21. Requests the Secretary-General and the Advisory Committee to submit their reports in accordance with paragraphs 10 and 11 of resolution 53/208 B of 18 December 1998;

22. Recognizes the need for Member States to participate in budgetary preparation from its earliest stages and throughout the process;

23. Encourages the Secretary-General to improve coordination between departments and the major duty stations in order to use resources effectively in all areas, including, inter alia, information technology;

24. Calls upon the Secretary-General to explore the possibility of presenting in future programme budgets one consolidated section for staff assessment inflows and outflows, with a view to improving the transparency of the presentation of the budget;

25. Also calls upon the Secretary-General to ensure that all sections of future proposed programme budgets are presented in the same standard format, in accordance with the relevant regulations and rules and relevant resolutions;

26. Requests the Secretary-General, in his programme budget submission for the biennium 2002-2003, to make further improvements to the proposed programme budget, as described by the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions in paragraphs 6 and 7 of its report;[2]

27. Also requests the Secretary-General to improve the presentation of future proposed programme budgets by including all relevant legislative mandates for all proposed programme narratives;

28. Further requests the Secretary-General, in his proposed programme budget for the biennium 2002-2003, to provide a better explanation on the use of standard costs and unit rates in the calculation of cost estimates;

29. Requests the Secretary-General, in his proposed programme budget for the biennium 2002-2003, to submit estimates of the total amount of resources, from all sources of financing, that he should have at his disposal in order to be able to implement fully the mandated programmes and activities;

II

30. Reaffirms that the medium-term plan, as approved by the General Assembly, shall continue to constitute the principal policy directive of the United Nations;

31. Reiterates that the priorities for the biennium 2000-2001 are the following:

(a) Maintenance of international peace and security;

(b) Promotion of sustained economic growth and sustainable development, in accordance with relevant General Assembly resolutions and recent United Nations conferences;

(c) Development of Africa;

(d) Promotion of human rights;

(e) Effective coordination of humanitarian assistance efforts;

(f) Promotion of justice and international law;

(g) Disarmament;

(h) Drug control, crime prevention and combating international terrorism in all its forms and manifestations;

32. Endorses the conclusions and recommendations of the Committee for Programme and Coordination on the programme narrative of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2000-2001 contained in the report of the Committee on the work of its thirty-ninth session,[3] subject to the provisions of the present resolution;

33. Notes with concern that the request for resources in the proposed programme budget did not accurately reflect the priorities approved by the General Assembly in its resolution 51/219;

34. Reiterates the need for the Secretary-General to ensure that resources are utilized strictly for the purposes approved by the General Assembly;

35. Emphasizes that the budget proposals of the Secretary-General should reflect resource levels commensurate with the mandates for their full implementation;

36. Reiterates that the reports of the Committee for Programme and Coordination on the proposed programme budget should only be considered by the General Assembly, through the Fifth Committee, for the final approval of the programme budget;

37. Expresses its concern that a number of sections in the proposed programme budget were not prepared in complete conformity with the medium-term plan;

38. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that in the future, the programme narratives of the programme budget fully conform to the provisions of the medium-term plan;

39. Reaffirms the need to strictly and fully implement the Regulations and Rules Governing Programme Planning, the Programme Aspects of the Budget, the Monitoring of Implementation and the Methods of Evaluation;

40. Emphasizes that programmes and activities mandated by the General Assembly must be respected and implemented fully;

41. Reiterates that the allocation of resources should fully reflect the priorities established in the medium-term plan;

42. Also reiterates that due consideration should be given to issues related to the development of Africa, as a matter of priority;

43. Emphasizes the need for mandated programmes and activities to be delivered in the most effective and efficient manner;

44. Decides to make changes, as contained in annex [xx] to the present resolution, to the programme narrative in the final published version of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2000-2001,[1] as reflected in the conclusions and recommendations of the Committee for Programme and Coordination at its thirty-ninth session[3] and the provisions of the present resolution;

III

45. Endorses the conclusions and recommendations of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions contained in its first report on the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2000-2001,[2] subject to the provisions of the present resolution;

46. Reaffirms paragraph 10 of resolution 53/206, whereby the General Assembly decided, inter alia, that additional requirements to the level of 86.2 million dollars included in the proposed programme budget for the financing of special political missions should be financed in conformity with the provisions of resolution 41/213;

47. Notes that the technical proposal on the treatment of the provision for special political missions in the programme budget, as recommended by the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions in paragraph 7 of its third report,[4] has not been submitted, and requests the Secretary-General to submit the proposal as a matter of priority to the Assembly during its fifty-fifth session;

48. Reaffirms its support for maintaining the international character of the Organization and to the principles of efficiency, competence and integrity enshrined in Article 101 of the Charter of the United Nations;

[4] A/52/7/Add.2.

49. Also reaffirms the role of the General Assembly with regard to the structure of the Secretariat, including the creation, suppression and redeployment of posts, and requests the Secretary-General to provide the Assembly with comprehensive information on all decisions involving established and temporary high-level posts, including equivalent positions financed from the regular budget and from extrabudgetary resources;

50. Expresses its concern at the high vacancy rate in certain areas of the Organization, particularly in some of the regional commissions, and reiterates in this regard that a high vacancy rate hampers the delivery of mandated programmes and activities;

51. Reaffirms that the vacancy rate is a tool for budgetary calculations and should not be used to achieve budgetary savings;

52. Also reaffirms that deliberate management decisions should not be taken to keep a certain number of posts vacant, as this action makes the budget process less transparent and management of human resources more difficult;

53. Decides that a vacancy rate of 6.5 per cent for Professional staff and 2.5 per cent for General Service staff shall be used as a basis for calculation of the budget for the biennium 2000-2001;

54. Notes that, should the realized vacancy rates be lower than the budgeted ones, the General Assembly would provide additional resources, if required, in the first and/or second performance report so as to preclude the need for any constraint on recruitment of staff;

55. Requests the Secretary-General to recruit staff expeditiously by proper planning and streamlining personnel practices and procedures, in order to avoid any adverse impact of a high vacancy rate on the effective implementation and delivery of mandated programmes and activities;

56. Also requests the Secretary-General to ensure that posts are not deliberately left vacant to provide a cushion for absorbing the costs of special missions and other activities authorized "within available resources";

57. Emphasizes that the reclassification of posts should not be used as a promotion tool;

58. Reiterates that reclassified posts, as approved by the General Assembly, should only be filled in full conformity with the established procedures for recruitment and placement;

59. Requests the Secretary-General, to undertake a comprehensive review of the post structure of the Secretariat, taking into account, inter alia, the introduction of new technology, and to make proposals in the programme budget for the biennium 2002-2003 to address the top-heavy post structure of the Organization;

60. Welcomes the use of information technology as one of the tools for improving the implementation of mandated programmes and activities;

61. Notes with regret the lack of a comprehensive information technology strategy for the United Nations, and requests the Secretary-General to develop a comprehensive strategy for the development and implementation of information technology, to be submitted through the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions to the General Assembly, during the main part of its fifty-fifth session;

62. Emphasizes that, the introduction of new technology should not lead to involuntary separation of staff, nor necessarily to reduction of staff;

63. Decides to reduce the resources proposed for allocation to information technology for the biennium 2000-2001 by 3,443,000 dollars;

64. Reaffirms that the use of temporary assistance should be strictly limited to requirements for peak workload, maternity and sick leave, and that it should not be used to supplant established posts;

65. Decides to reduce the level of resources proposed by the Secretary-General for allocation to general temporary assistance, with the exception of general temporary assistance for conference services, by 3,200,000 dollars;

66. Regrets the continued tendency towards excessive use of consultants where in-house expertise is available, and urges the Secretary-General to resort to the use of consultants strictly in accordance with the existing regulations and rules and relevant resolutions;

67. Decides to reduce the level of resources proposed by the Secretary-General for consultants by 2,028,000, with the exception of the Department of Economic and Social Affairs and the regional commissions;

68. Emphasizes the importance of the knowledge and skills of the staff of the Organization and therefore requests the Secretary-General to develop a more coordinated and systematic approach to staff training, in particular in view of enhancing skills and increasing expertise through training programmes, as recommended by the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions;

69. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to strictly comply with the approved travel policies, standards, and regulations and rules, particularly with respect to ensuring that travel is undertaken by the most direct and economical route;

70. Decides to reduce the resources proposed for travel of staff on official business by 2,480,000 dollars;

71. Requests the Secretary-General to provide some flexibility in allowing the use of the external printing account for internal printing purposes, as appropriate;

72. Decides that the staffing table for each year of the biennium 2000-2001 shall be as contained in annex [xx] to the present resolution;

IV

Part I
Overall policy-making, direction and coordination

Section 1
Overall policy-making, direction and coordination

73. Decides to establish a P-5 post in the Office of the Deputy Secretary-General;

74. Concurs with the observations of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions contained in paragraphs I.5, I.6 and I.7 of its report[2] on the need to ensure that the Office of the President of the General Assembly is provided with adequate resources, and decides that, in the interest of clarity and transparency, the resources proposed for support to the President of the General Assembly shall be presented separately from the estimates for the travel of representatives of least developed countries to sessions of the General Assembly;

75. Decides that the resources for the Office of the President of the General Assembly shall be allocated between the presidents of the General Assembly sessions to which they relate so as to ensure equitable provision of these resources, taking into account the duration of the term of each president;

76. Reaffirms paragraphs 13 and 14 of part IV of its resolution 53/214 of 18 December 1998;

77. Requests the Secretary-General to take additional measures to ensure that the representatives of least developed countries are fully and duly informed of their entitlements to travel to General Assembly sessions in a timely manner;

78. Also requests the Secretary-General to keep under review the activities of the Office of External Relations in order to avoid any possible duplication with other areas of the Secretariat, and to report thereon in the context of the next proposed programme budget;

Section 2
General Assembly affairs and conference services

79. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that the use of contractual services does not have an adverse impact on conference services or result in additional costs to the Organization;

80. Reiterates its request in paragraph 19 of part III of its resolution 52/220 of 22 December 1997;

81. Decides to establish four P-4 posts in the Interpretation Section in Vienna;

82. Also decides to redeploy the P-4 post for the Chief of the Spanish Unit, Copy Preparation and Proofreading Section;

83. Notes with concern the proposed reduction of resources for conference services for the biennium 2000-2001, and requests the Secretary-General to ensure that efficiency measures are carefully analysed to avoid any negative impact on conference services, in the light of the level and quality of services provided to Member States;

Part II
Political affairs

Section 3
Political affairs

84. Endorses the observations and recommendations of the Advisory Committee contained in paragraph II.12 of its report[2] with respect to the new Policy Planning Unit;

85. Reiterates that any expenditure in excess of the provision approved for special political missions in the proposed programme budget shall continue to be treated in accordance with General Assembly resolution 41/213;

Section 4
Disarmament

86. Decides to reclassify to the D-2 level the D-1 post of Deputy Secretary-General of the Conference on Disarmament and Chief of the Department Branch;

87. Reiterates paragraph 6 of its resolution 54/55 C of 1 December 1999 on the United Nations Regional Centre for Peace and Disarmament in Asia and the Pacific;

Section 5
Peacekeeping operations

88. Emphasizes that all peacekeeping missions shall be provided with adequate resources to ensure their effective functioning;

Part III
International justice and law

Section 7
International Court of Justice

89. Notes with concern that the resources proposed for the International Court of Justice are not proportionate with the workload envisaged, and requests the Secretary-General to propose adequate resources for this section in the context of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2002-2003, commensurate with its increased workload and the large backlog of volumes of the Court's documents;

90. Commends the response of the International Court of Justice to earlier requests that it explore vigorously the introduction of modern technology, and recommends that it continue to pursue further the use of such technology, in accordance with the relevant resolutions of the General Assembly;

Part IV
International cooperation for development

Section 9
Economic and social affairs

91. Decides to reclassify to the D-1 level the P-5 post of Chief of the Non-Governmental Organizations Section;

92. Notes the rapid development of the partnership between the United Nations and the non-governmental organizations community, and recognizes, therefore, the additional responsibilities and the increased workload of the Non-Governmental Organizations Section;

93. Requests the Secretary-General to submit a report to the General Assembly at its fifty-fourth session on the administrative and financial issues concerning the Non-Governmental Organizations Section, in particular with regard to the number and level of posts in the section;

Section 10
Africa: New Agenda for Development

94. Reaffirms the important role of the programme Africa: New Agenda for Development in addressing Africa's critical socio-economic situation, and reiterates the urgent need to provide the programme with adequate resources to enable it to achieve its objectives;

95. Also reaffirms the priority assigned to the development of Africa by the General Assembly, and in this regard reiterates paragraph 48 of part III of its resolution 52/220 in which it called upon the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to mobilize additional resources for the implementation of the programme of action contained in the United Nations New Agenda for the Development of Africa in the 1990s;

96. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure in a coordinated manner the effective and timely implementation of the New Agenda;

97. Emphasizes the continuing need to focus on the priority areas of the New Agenda and to organize close consultations at both the policy and the operational levels among the various development partners in order to achieve the best results;

Section 11A
Trade and development

98. Endorses the agreed conclusions of the Working Party on the Medium-term Plan and Programme Budget of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development;

99. Emphasizes the need to provide adequate resources to strengthen the capacity of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development in priority areas;

100. Invites the Secretary-General to consider the establishment of a new subprogramme on Africa under section 11A, Trade and development, through redeployment subject to the approval of the General Assembly at its fifty-fifth session on the basis of such proposals as the tenth session of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development may wish to make through the Committee for Programme and Coordination;

101. Requests the Secretary-General to strengthen the Office of the Special Coordinator for landlocked developing countries in order to enable it to effectively address the concerns of landlocked and transit developing countries;

102. Notes with concern that the level of staff and financial resources in the Office of the Special Coordinator for Least Developed Countries, Landlocked Developing Countries and Island Developing States is not commensurate with the increased responsibilities and activities deriving from its mandates;

103. Decides to re-establish the unit for Landlocked Developing Countries and Small Island Developing States within the Office of the Special Coordinator, and to establish one P-5, two P-4, one P-3 and three General Service posts related thereto, and requests the Secretary-General to report on the effectiveness of the functioning of the unit before the end of the biennium 2000-2001;

104. Deeply regrets that its decision in paragraph 49 of part III of its resolution 52/220 has not been implemented, and stresses the need to expeditiously recruit the P-5 post of the Special Coordinator referred to in that resolution;

105. Notes with concern that the reference to resources allocated for the Third United Nations Conference on Least Developed Countries and the Fourth United Nations Conference to Review All Aspects of Multilaterally Agreed Equitable Principles and Rules for the Control of Restrictive Commercial Practices (2000) are not clearly presented under the policy-making organs and the programme support costs, and requests the Secretary-General to report thereon in the context of the programme budget performance report for the biennium 2000-2001;

106. Takes note with concern of the high vacancy rates for this programme and the adverse effect of this situation on the effective implementation of this programme;

107. Requests the Secretary-General, in this regard, to urgently take measures to correct this situation;

Section 12
Environment

108. Decides to approve the reformulated fascicle for section 12;[5]

109. Requests the Secretary-General to review the proposed provisions for this section with a view to ensuring a stable, predictable and viable source of funding in order to avoid heavy reliance upon extrabudgetary resources;

Section 13
Human settlements

110. Requests the Secretary-General, in accordance with paragraph 229 of the Habitat Agenda and in consultation with the Commission on Human Settlements, to continue to ensure more effective functioning of the United Nations Centre for Human Settlements (Habitat) by, inter alia, providing sufficient human and financial resources within the regular budget of the United Nations;

111. Decides to approve the reformulated programme narrative for section 13;[6]

112. Requests the Secretary-General, as a matter of urgency, to appoint on a full-time basis and at the level of Under-Secretary-General, the Executive Director of the United Nations Centre for Human Settlements (Habitat);

113. Also requests the Secretary-General to review the proposed provisions for this section with a view to ensuring a stable, predictable and viable source of funding in order to avoid heavy reliance upon extrabudgetary resources;

Section 15
International drug control

114. Takes note with concern of the high dependence of the programme on extrabudgetary resources;

115. Decides to appropriate resources for printing under subprogramme 1 at the same level as in the current biennium;

Part V
Regional cooperation for development

116. Emphasizes the need for greater interaction between the regional commissions and the respective regional organizations;

117. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to ensure that the regional commissions provide technical assistance to Member States, including through their respective regional organizations;

118. Commends the efforts of the regional commissions at reform and streamlining, and encourages them to continue to undertake, as appropriate and under the aegis of their respective intergovernmental bodies, further measures in this regard;

119. Expresses deep concern about the underutilization of the conference centres in Bangkok and Addis Ababa, and requests the Secretary-General to develop and implement a strategy for increasing their usage, and to report thereon to the General Assembly by the end of the fifty-fourth session;

[5] A/C.5/54/20.
[6] A/C.5/54/16.

Section 16
Economic and social development in Africa

120. Notes with deep concern the high vacancy rate in the Economic Commission for Africa, and in this regard reiterates paragraph 23 of section II of its resolution 52/220;

121. Recalls paragraphs 7 and 12 of section IV of its resolution 53/214 in which, inter alia, it requested the Secretary-General to take all the necessary steps to achieve a vacancy rate of no more than 5 per cent for posts in the Professional and higher categories by the end of the biennium 1998-1999;

122. Requests the Secretary-General to take the necessary measures, as a matter of priority, to achieve a vacancy rate of no more than 5 per cent within the biennium, [particularly] in the Economic Commission for Africa, and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its fifty-fifth session;

123. Expresses its deep concern that the Economic Commission for Africa is still suffering from a significant high vacancy rate at the Professional level, and requests the Secretary-General to ensure that all posts budgeted for the biennium 2000-2001 are filled;

124. Welcomes the reform process carried out by the Economic Commission for Africa to strengthen its programme of work, in particular as regards the subregional development centres;

125. Reiterates that the Secretary-General redeploys to the subregional development centres any savings realized during the biennium as the result of reform measures and efficiency gains from within the Economic Commission for Africa;

126. Requests the Secretary-General to provide the African Institute for the Prevention of Crime and Treatment of Offenders with the core Professional staff required to enable it to function effectively towards the fulfilment of its mandates;

Section 16B
Regional Commissions New York Office

127. Emphasizes the need to provide an adequate level of resources for the Regional Commissions New York Office for the effective implementation of its activities;

128. Requests the Secretary-General to review the classification of General Service posts of the Regional Commissions New York Office;

Section 17
Economic and social development in Asia and the Pacific

129. Notes with concern the high vacancy rate in the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific, which could adversely affect the implementation of mandated programmes and activities, and requests the Secretary-General to take all necessary measures to redress the situation;

Section 18
Economic development in Europe

130. Commends the Economic Commission for Europe for the rationalization of its programmes and for the improved presentation of its narratives;

Section 19
Economic and social development in Latin America and the Caribbean

131. Commends the Commission for the implementation of the reform programme for the Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean;

132. Expresses its concern at the decreasing trend in extrabudgetary resources as well as at its impact on the level of technical cooperation activities, and requests the Secretary-General to submit proposals to address the adverse impact of declining extrabudgetary resources for the Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean;

133. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that all the necessary means are provided for the full implementation of all subprogrammes and their respective activities;

134. Reaffirms paragraph 73 of section 19 of resolution 52/220 in which it requested the Secretary-General to ensure that all activities included in subprogramme 2 should benefit all members of the region;

Part VI
Human rights and humanitarian affairs

Section 22
Human rights

135. Commends the Secretariat for having successfully reduced the vacancy rate in the programme;

136. Approves the proposed establishment of a P-4 post for the New York office;

137. Notes with concern that paragraph 8 of its resolution 53/78 A of 4 December 1998 has not been fully implemented, requests the Secretary-General to provide the Subregional Centre for Human Rights and Democracy in Central Africa with adequate financial resources, and in this regard decides to appropriate an amount of 1,000,000 dollars in the programme budget for the biennium 2000-2001;

138. Notes with concern that resources proposed for activities related to the right to development are not clearly identified within subprogramme 1;

139. Decides to appropriate an additional amount of 160,000 dollars for activities of the Preparatory Committee related to the World Conference against Racism, Racial Discrimination, Xenophobia and Related Intolerance;

140. Reaffirms paragraph 2 of section XI of part B of its resolution 44/201 of 21 December 1989, and recalls paragraphs 74 to 77 and 79 under section 22 of part III of its resolution 52/220;

141. Notes that the General Assembly has not taken action on the report of the Secretary-General requested in paragraph 2 of section II of part B of its resolution 44/201;

142. Decides, consistent with paragraph 79 of resolution 52/220 and pending consideration of the report requested in resolution 44/201, to appropriate the resources requested by the Secretary-General in the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2000-2001,[1] and in this regard requests the Secretary-General to ensure that no funds directly related to non-mandated activities are committed for them;

143. Also decides to revert to this issue during its resumed fifty-fourth session;

Section 23
Protection of and assistance to refugees

144. Notes with concern that no concrete action was taken by the Secretary-General pursuant to its request in paragraph 82 of section III of its resolution 52/220;

145. Deeply regrets the continuing decline of the flow of extrabudgetary resources to the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees;

146. Emphasizes that refugees all over the world shall be given equal and non-discriminatory treatment, taking into account provisions of the relevant international conventions, and stresses the importance of providing adequate assistance to countries hosting refugees;

Section 24
Palestine refugees

147. Notes with concern the direct impact of the decrease of extrabudgetary resources on the quality of services provided by the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East;

148. Decides to restore to the regular budget the six international posts (one D-2, one D-1, one P-5, one P-4, one P-3 and one General Service) currently financed from the Agency's extrabudgetary resources, in line with General Assembly resolution 3331 B (XXIX) of 17 December 1974;

Section 25
Humanitarian assistance

149. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly by the end of its fifty-fourth session the report requested in paragraph 84 of section III of its resolution 52/220 on the legislative basis and methodology for charging programme support costs for voluntary contributions, in cash or in kind;

Part VII
Public information

Section 26
Public information

150. Notes with regret that the pilot web sites in Arabic, Chinese, and Russian are being maintained through the use of limited general temporary assistance funds, and in this regard decides to convert the related positions to established posts so as to ensure equitable representation of all six official languages on the United Nations web sites;

151. Requests the Secretary-General to take into account the views of host countries before deciding to merge or close United Nations information centres in Member States;

152. Also requests the Secretary-General to consult Member States in which United Nations information centres were merged or closed, with a view to reviving those centres, as appropriate;

153. Further requests the Secretary-General to review earlier cases where United Nations information centres were merged with the offices of the United Nations Development Programme, with a view to determining whether such mergers resulted in diminished dissemination of public information;

154. Recognizes that radio broadcasting is one of the most effective and far-reaching media available to the Department of Public Information;

155. Reiterates paragraph 32 of General Assembly resolution 54/82 B of 6 December 1999, and requests the Secretary-General to ensure implementation of the pilot project as soon as possible utilizing extrabudgetary resources to the fullest extent possible as well as the resources (496,300 dollars) sought in paragraph 26.69 (c) of his proposals, and if required, other redeployable resources including, inter alia, general operating expenses, within section 26, and to report on progress in the context of the first performance report for the biennium 2000-2001;

156. Expresses its appreciation that there are fifteen languages used to diffuse United Nations radio programmes, news magazines, programmes and multi-segment regional magazines, including, inter alia, Kiswahili;

157. Notes with concern that the post of Kiswahili Producer was abolished and that for the last fifteen years only one Kiswahili Producer has been deployed under special service agreement, notwithstanding the fact that the Kiswahili language is increasingly gaining ground as it is widely spoken in many African countries and understood in many more countries internationally;

158. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that the permanent P-3 post of Kiswahili Producer is reinstated and that one additional G-6 assistant is recruited to the Kiswahili programme in order to render it more effective;

159. Emphasizes the need for the United Nations to have a coordinated public information strategy, which would bring the activities of different parts of the Secretariat together in an integrated way;

160. Also emphasizes that the Organization's public information resources must be properly targeted so as to ensure that the United Nations delivers a consistent message through a variety of outlets;

161. Requests the Secretary-General to review the role of the Public Affairs Division, News and Media Division, Office of the Spokesman for the Secretary-General and the Office of External Relations and to consider their staffing level in the context of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2002-2003;

162. Also requests the Secretary-General, pursuant to resolutions 53/22 of 4 November 1998 and 54/113 of 10 December 1999, to optimize the capacity of the Department of Public Information to disseminate information effectively on all activities undertaken in preparation for the year 2001, proclaimed as the United Nations Year of Dialogue among Civilizations;

163. Further requests the Secretary-General to make all arrangements to optimize the capacity of the Department of Public Information to adequately undertake activities pertaining to the International Year for the Culture of Peace in 2000 and the International Decade for a Culture of Peace and Non-Violence for the Children of the World (2001-2010), pursuant to General Assembly resolutions 52/15 of 20 November 1997 and 53/25 of 10 November 1998;

Part VIII
Common support services

Section 27A
Office of the Under-Secretary-General for Management

164. Emphasizes that the responsibilities and workload of the secretariat of the Fifth Committee, which also serves as the secretariat of the Committee for Programme and Coordination, require that the secretariat be strengthened;

165. Decides to reclassify from D-1 to D-2 and from P-4 to P-5 the posts of Secretary and Deputy Secretary, respectively, of the Fifth Committee of the General Assembly and of the Committee for Programme and Coordination;

Section 27C
Office of Human Resources Management

166. Decides to approve the proposed reformulation of paragraph 27C.6 of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2000;[7]

167. Requests the Office of Human Resources Management to be more focused on the establishment of a proper system of accountability and responsibility as well as on the improvement of an effective system of administration of justice, as an integral part of the human resources management reform process;

168. Requests the Secretary-General to carefully review the agenda and meeting schedule of the Staff-Management Coordination Committee, with a view to avoiding the holding of inter-sessional meetings, taking also into account the possibilities offered by videoconferencing;

Section 27D
Office of Central Support Services

169. Decides to reduce the allocation of resources proposed for general operating expenses by 8,500,000 dollars;

170. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its fifty-fifth session on progress made by the United Nations Common Services Task Force on the existing common services and to expand and develop new ones as appropriate;

171. Notes the advanced level of the arrangements for common services and related cost indicators at the United Nations Office at Vienna;

172. Reiterates the importance of the security system and security guards of the United Nations, and requests the Secretary-General to address the level of resources related to the Security and Safety Service, including the reclassification of posts, in the context of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2002-2003;

Section 27E
Administration, Geneva

173. Requests the Secretary-General to review the current security arrangements and to report thereon to the General Assembly at the main part of its fifty-fifth session;

[7] A/C.5/54/17.

Section 27G
Administration, Nairobi

174. Welcomes the commitment of the Secretary-General to increase gradually the regular budget component of the United Nations Office at Nairobi, with a view to easing the administrative costs levied on the substantive programmes of the United Nations Environment Programme and the United Nations Centre for Human Settlements (Habitat);

175. Calls upon the Secretary-General to present, in the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2002-2003, in a uniform manner the cost of the United Nations Office at Nairobi and the rates of reimbursement for services rendered to other organizations in Nairobi;

176. Requests the Secretary-General to replace the charge-back procedure for cost-sharing of expenses for the United Nations Office at Nairobi with a simpler, more reliable and predictable procedure;

177. Reaffirms paragraph 101 of section III of its resolution 52/220, in which it requested the Secretary-General to bring the financial arrangements of the United Nations Office at Nairobi into line with those of similar United Nations administrative offices;

178. Expresses concern that the conference facilities at the United Nations Office at Nairobi are still underutilized, as recorded during the last reporting period;

179. Decides to establish a permanent interpretation service at the United Nations Office at Nairobi;

180. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its fifty-fifth session a strategic plan for the full use of conference facilities in Nairobi, so as to ensure that interpretation capacity will be fully utilized;

Part IX
Internal oversight

Section 28
Internal oversight

181. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that the resources for the Office of Internal Oversight Services are fully justified in the light of its workload;

Part X
Jointly financed administrative activities and special expenses

Section 29
Jointly financed administrative activities

182. Stresses the need to ensure that the independence of the Joint Inspection Unit as the only system-wide external oversight body is not compromised through the budgetary process;

183. Reiterates its decision 54/__ of __ December 1999;[8]

184. Reaffirms the statute of the Joint Inspection Unit, in particular article 20.1;

185. Requests the Secretary-General, pending the outcome of the review of the Information Systems Coordination Committee, to identify appropriate resources to finance the United Nations share of the cost of the Committee for the first year of the biennium 2000-2001, and to report thereon in the context of the first performance report;

186. Requests the Board of Auditors to submit a report on the status of the implementation of the recommendations contained in its report[9] and to make further recommendations in this regard;

Part XI
Capital expenditures

Section 31
Construction, alteration, improvement and major maintenance

187. Requests the Secretary-General to present to the General Assembly during its fifty-fourth session a detailed and comprehensive report addressing the asbestos problem, including inter alia, the following elements:

(a) An assessment of the current situation;

(b) An assessment of the impact of the asbestos situation on the health of staff members, delegates and other persons working in and visiting the building;

(c) A specific proposal aimed to improve the asbestos situation in the building and the related timetable for its implementation;

(d) Information on the level of resources required for the implementation of this plan;

188. Expresses its concern at the serious situation of the United Nations Headquarters buildings and the absence of specific proposals in the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2000-2001 aimed at addressing this situation;

189. Requests the Secretary-General to present the master plan requested in paragraph XI.6 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions[2] no later than February 2000;

Part XIII
Development Account

Section 33
Development Account

190. Notes with concern the late submission of budget proposals on section 33 of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2000-2001 and requests the Secretary-General to ensure that in future all budget proposals are submitted in time in accordance with established budgetary procedure;

191. Emphasizes that the efficiency measures and the transfer of savings therefrom should not lead to a process of budgetary reduction and should not result in the involuntary separation of staff;

192. Also emphasizes that the efficiency measures and the redeployment of savings to the Development Account should not adversely affect the full implementation of all mandated programmes and activities;

[9] A/52/811.

193. Reiterates that savings to be achieved as a result of the efficiency measures can be identified in the context of budget performance reports and shall be transferred to the Development Account section with the prior approval of the General Assembly;

194. Also reiterates that the savings transferred to the Development Account section in accordance with paragraph 4 of General Assembly resolution 54/15 shall form the maintenance base for that section in future proposed programme budgets;

195. Reaffirms that the Development Account should be operated strictly in accordance with the Financial Regulations and Rules of the United Nations and the Regulations and Rules Governing Programme Planning, the Programme Aspects of the Budget, the Monitoring of Implementation and the Methods of Evaluation;

196. Reiterates that the anticipated duration of the approved projects contained in the report of the Secretary-General[10] shall not be used as a precedent for setting time limits for the programmes of the regular budget;

197. Stresses that in the implementation of the proposals particular attention should be given to the utilization of technical, human and other resources available in the developing countries;

198. Reiterates its decision to keep the implementation of the Development Account under review;

199. Stresses that, in accordance with the established budgetary procedure, comprehensive proposals in the context of the proposed programme budget should be submitted to the Committee for Programme and Coordination and the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions for their recommendations on the Secretary-General's proposal, for consideration by the Fifth Committee;

200. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that in the future project design and implementation should focus on economic and social activities in developing countries and countries with economies in transition;

Income section 2
General income

201. Notes with appreciation the measures taken to increase the return on United Nations balances and investments, and urges the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to further enhance such returns.

Annex [XX]

Changes to the programme narratives of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2000-2001, as reflected in the conclusions and recommendations of the Committee for Programme and Coordination at its thirty-ninth session, and additional modifications

Foreword and introduction

1. In paragraph 189, the first sentence should read: "During the biennium, the Office will perform functions in accordance with resolution 48/218 B."

[10] A/53/945.

Section 1
Overall policy-making, direction and coordination

2. In paragraph 1.50:

(a) After the second sentence, insert a new sentence reading "The functions and responsibilities of the Deputy Secretary-General are in accordance with paragraph 1 of resolution 52/12 B.";

(b) In the penultimate sentence, replace the phrase "This organizational unit" with "The Executive Office of the Secretary-General", and move the sentence so that it follows the first sentence of the paragraph.

3. In paragraph 1.65, first sentence, after "Economic and Social Council" insert "responsibilities entrusted to the Director-General of the Conference on Disarmament;".

4. In paragraph 1.75:

(a) In the last sentence, before "functions", insert "core";

(b) In subparagraph (b), after "non-governmental organizations", insert "in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council".

Section 2
General Assembly affairs and conference services

5. After paragraph 2.35, add a new paragraph reading:

"The Division will also conduct consultations and coordinate the assignment of responsibilities for the implementation of General Assembly and Economic and Social Council resolutions and decisions and follow-up to ensure timely action by relevant bodies."

and renumber the subsequent paragraphs accordingly.

6. At the end of former paragraph 2.36 (c) (i), add "and consultations and coordination for the assignment of responsibilities for the implementation of General Assembly and Economic and Social Council resolutions".

7. After former paragraph 2.45, add a new paragraph reading:

"Another objective will be to coordinate with relevant bodies to ensure compliance with General Assembly resolutions 52/214 B and 53/208 B regarding the format of reports."

and renumber the subsequent paragraphs accordingly.

8. In former paragraph 2.46 (c) (ii), after "limitation of documentation;", insert "compliance with resolution 53/208 B on format of reports;".

9. In former paragraph 2.46 (c), add:

"(iii) Provision of interpretation services for meetings of regional and other major groupings of Member States, on an ad hoc basis, in accordance with established practice;

(iv) Provision of facilities for bilateral meetings of Heads of State and Government during the General Assembly sessions on an 'as available' basis;".

Section 3
Political affairs

10. In paragraph 3.2, after the first sentence, insert "A case in point is the promotion of a comprehensive, just and lasting settlement of the question of Palestine in accordance with all relevant United Nations resolutions".

11. In paragraph 3.37 (c) (i), replace "Participation in the activities of" with "Maintain contacts for exchanges of information with".

Section 4
Disarmament

12. Replace paragraph 4.2 with the following:

"The Department for Disarmament Affairs, headed by an Under-Secretary-General, was re-established by the Secretary-General in January 1998 to replace the Centre for Disarmament Affairs as part of his programme for reform. The Secretary-General sought to put in place a new structure that would have the capacity to respond more effectively to the priorities of Member States in the disarmament area. The Department of Disarmament Affairs will continue its activities in 2000 and 2001 in the field of disarmament, related to weapons of mass destruction and conventional arms."

13. Replace paragraph 4.3 with the following:

"In the coming biennium, the Department will continue to assist Member States in promoting, strengthening and consolidating multilateral principles and norms in all the fields of disarmament. It will expand its outreach activities, including its databases, to ensure the exchange of impartial and factual information on disarmament and security-related matters among the United Nations, Member States, regional organizations and non-governmental organizations and to enhance interaction and cooperation on such matters. The Department of Disarmament Affairs will, through its revitalized regional centres for peace and disarmament, assist Member States in promoting the pursuit of regional solutions to regional problems in the field of disarmament."

14. Replace paragraph 4.4 with the following:

"The legislative authority for the programme under this section derives from the Charter of the United Nations, the medium-term plan for the period 1998-2001, as revised (A/53/6/Rev.1), and relevant resolutions and decisions of the General Assembly and other legislative organs of the United Nations system."

15. After paragraph 4.4, insert a new paragraph 4.5 reading:

"The Conference on Disarmament (until 1984, the Committee on Disarmament) was set up in accordance with paragraph 120 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly (resolution S-10/2) as the single multilateral disarmament negotiating forum of the international community. The Conference on Disarmament is open to the five nuclear-weapon States and 56 other States. In addition, some 40 non-member States are invited, upon their request, to participate in its work. The Conference on Disarmament, inter alia, conducts its work by consensus, adopts its own rules of procedure, rotates its presidency among all its members on a monthly basis, adopts its own agenda, taking into account the recommendations made to it by the General Assembly and the proposals presented by the members of the Conference, and submits a report to the General Assembly annually, or more frequently. The Conference divides its annual sessions into three parts and, if necessary, continues its negotiations on priority issues during the inter-sessional periods. Meetings thus take place for seven to nine months each year."

16. After old paragraph 4.5, insert a new paragraph 4.6 reading:

"The Disarmament Commission, a subsidiary organ of the General Assembly, was set up in accordance with paragraph 118 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly devoted to Disarmament (resolution S-10/2), as the specialized, deliberative body within the United Nations multilateral disarmament machinery that allows for in-depth deliberation on specific disarmament issues, leading to the submission of concrete recommendations on those issues" (General Assembly resolution 53/79 A, para. 3).

17. Replace old paragraph 4.5 with new paragraph 4.7 reading:

"The proposals under this section address current and future trends in the field of disarmament and international security in order to assist Member States, and to enable the Secretary-General also to assist them, in their search for agreement. Apart from substantive issues involved in the deliberative and/or negotiating process, these proposals should also address the challenges arising from the implementation of the relevant General Assembly resolutions as well as relevant treaties."

18. Renumber old paragraphs 4.6, 4.7 and 4.8 as paragraphs 4.8, 4.9 and 4.10, respectively.

19. Delete old paragraphs 4.9, 4.10 and 4.11.

20. Replace old paragraph 4.13 with new paragraph 4.12 reading:

"During the biennium 2000-2001, the following objectives will be pursued: to provide organizational and substantive secretariat support to multilateral bodies entrusted with deliberation and/or negotiations on disarmament issues; to follow and assess current and future trends in the field of disarmament and international security in order to assist Member States, and to enable the Secretary-General also to assist them, in their search for agreement; to support and promote regional disarmament efforts and initiatives using approaches freely arrived at by the States of the region and taking into account the legitimate requirements of States for self-defence and specific characteristics of each region; to strengthen the capacity of the Department as well as that of the Secretary-General's Advisory Board on Disarmament Matters; to provide impartial, factual information on the disarmament efforts of the United Nations to Member States, parliamentarians, research and academic institutions, and specialized non-governmental organizations through the disarmament information programme and by providing Member States with full access to all relevant databases, including on disarmament; and to continue to inform the public on an objective and updated basis of the United Nations disarmament activities."

21. Replace old paragraph 4.14 with new paragraph 4.13 reading:

"Following the establishment of the Department and its reorganization, its activities have been carried out by five branches and three regional centres as follows: the Conference on Disarmament Secretariat and Conference Support Branch in Geneva, the Weapons of Mass Destruction Branch, the Conventional Arms (including Practical Disarmament Measures) Branch, the Monitoring, Database and Information Branch, the Regional Disarmament branch and the regional centres for peace and disarmament in Africa, in Asia and the pacific and in Latin-America and the Caribbean."

22. Replace old paragraph 4.15 with new paragraph 4.14 reading:

"Gender mainstreaming can make a contribution to strengthening the Department's ability to carry out key elements of its mandate. In this regard efforts are being made to increase the number of women on the Secretary-General's Advisory Board on Disarmament Matters. In the biennium 2000-2001, 25 per cent of the members will be women, up from 8.6 per cent. Gender mainstreaming will also be built into activities pertaining to the establishment of other disarmament and arms control mechanisms, including advocacy."

23. Replace old paragraph 4.16 with new paragraph 4.15 reading:

"The expected accomplishments during the biennium include: assistance in negotiations, deliberations, consensus-building and review conferences of States parties to various multilateral arms limitation and disarmament agreements; increased expertise in the field of arms limitation and disarmament among Member States as a result of the implementation of the disarmament fellowship, training and advisory services programme; assistance in negotiations, deliberations and consensus-building in the field of weapons of mass destruction and conventional weapons and increased awareness and understanding of Member States of new trends and developments in those fields; promotion of participation in the United Nations Register of Conventional Arms and the United Nations standardized instrument for reporting of military expenditures; assistance in initiatives taken to address illicit trafficking in small arms and light weapons in all its aspects; a reinvigorated publications and outreach programme, including a well-developed web site for the Department; effective confidence-building and arms limitation measures in the Central African subregion; and development of politically sound and economically viable projects on demobilization and weapons collection and destruction at the request of Member States."

24. Renumber paragraphs 4.17 and 4.18 as paragraphs 4.16 and 4.17, respectively.

25. In old paragraph 4.17 (a) (ii) b. (new para. 4.16 (ii) b.) replace "Ottawa Convention" (line 14) with "Convention on the Prohibition of the Use, Stockpiling and Production and Transfer of Anti-Personnel Mines and on Their Destruction".

26. In old paragraph 4.17 (a) b. (xviii) (new para. 4.16 (xviii)), replace "Ottawa Convention on landmines" (line 5) with "Convention on the Prohibition of the Use, Stockpiling and Production and Transfer of Anti-Personnel Mines and on Their Destruction".

27. In old paragraph 4.18 (new para. 4.17), replace "Ottawa Convention on landmines" (line 6) with "Convention on the Prohibition of the Use, Stockpiling and Production and Transfer of Anti-Personnel Mines and on Their Destruction".

Section 5
Peacekeeping operations

28. In paragraph 5.5, last sentence, replace "other missions" with "good offices, preventive diplomacy, peacemaking and humanitarian missions".

29. At the beginning of paragraph 5.6, insert:

"Every effort will be made to seek the early resolution of conflicts through pacific settlement of disputes by the parties concerned through negotiation, inquiry, mediation, conciliation, arbitration, judicial settlement, resort to regional agencies or arrangements, or other peaceful means in accordance with the Charter. However, peacekeeping will be one of the key instruments available to the United Nations to resolve conflicts and to maintain international peace and security."

Section 6
Peaceful uses of outer space

30. In paragraph 6.4:

(a) At the end of the penultimate sentence, after "sustainable development" add "and sustained economic growth".

(b) At the end of the paragraph, delete "land mine detection" and add ", at the request of Governments".

31. In paragraph 6.5, first sentence, after "sustainable development" insert "and sustained economic growth".

Section 9
Economic and social affairs

32. In paragraph 9.4, penultimate sentence, insert "landlocked" after "least developed countries". This change should be reflected throughout the narrative of section 9, wherever reference is made to "least developed countries and small island developing States".

33. In paragraph 9.58, line 4, after "in particular its Second Committee, and,"delete "as appropriate".

34. In paragraph 9.98, after "(resolution S-19/2)," insert "the resolution endorsing the World Solar Programme 1996-2005 as a contribution to the overall sustainable development agenda, adopted by the General Assembly at its fifty-third session (resolution 53/7),".

35. After paragraph 9.103, add a new paragraph reading:

> "In compliance with General Assembly resolution 53/7 of 16 October 1998, concrete action will be undertaken by the Secretary-General in consultation with the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) and in cooperation with the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) and other relevant organizations to ensure that the World Solar Programme 1996-2005 is fully integrated and brought into the mainstream of the efforts of the United Nations system to attain the objective of sustained economic growth and sustainable development."

and renumber the subsequent paragraphs accordingly.

36. In former paragraphs 9.105 (a) (v), 9.105 (b) (iii) and 9.107, after "integrated water resource management" insert "and development". This change is to be reflected throughout the entire narrative of section 9, wherever reference is made to "integrated water resource management".

Section 10
Africa: New Agenda for Development

37. In paragraph 10.2:

(a) At the end of the third sentence, add ", in accordance with General Assembly resolution 53/90 of 7 December 1998 and in the context of the Cairo Agenda for Action: Relaunching Africa's Economic and Social Development";

(b) At the end of the paragraph, add a new sentence reading:

"In its resolution 53/92 of 7 December 1998, the General Assembly welcomed the recommendations of the Secretary-General and requested him to submit a progress report on their implementation to the Assembly at its fifty-fourth session."

and renumber the subsequent paragraphs accordingly.

Section 11A
Trade and development

38. In table 11A.23, delete the text relating to the Committee for Programme and Coordination.

Section 12
